

Who we are

We are a remote talent solution firm that connects top talent from Latin America with AEC companies in the US and Canada.

Our professionals are vetted to work in your same time zone, speak fluent English, and are experienced with U.S. standards.

How we do it

We put together a personalized job description! You let us know exactly what you're looking for in a professional, and our recruiting team finds handpicked candidates for you.

After we send over the portfolios, you get to set interviews with the candidates of your choice. A portfolio can say so much about someone, but meeting them really makes a huge difference! It's important for us that you're 100% sure of who you bring on board.

After the interview instance, if a professional catches your eye, we set a kickoff meeting and you immediately start working together! Super Easy. We take care of the entire process so you can have someone on your team in less than 10 days.

Our benefits

At Better Pros, it's not just about assigning a professional to you, but more so about finding the perfect match for you and your company!

We pay special attention to the technical portion and also make sure that the candidates presented fit in perfectly with you and the culture of your company.

We make sure that the entire process is taken care of, so you can focus on what's important to you: making your business grow!

With Better Pros, you gain not just a professional but a valuable partner committed to your success.*
